Five Peat! Cooks Win Scavenger Hunt Again

Father and Sons Successfully Defend Their Title With 93-Point Season

By Alan Schuster
Nov 9, 2014

Todd, Tim, and Kellan Cook snagged 233 baseballs this season, but once again their camera proved to be their most deadly weapon. For the fifth consecutive season, the Father-Sons team bested the competition to win the myGameBalls.com Photo Scavenger Hunt.

The cooks racked up a total of 93 points in this year's contest, finishing with almost 40 more points than their nearest competitor. Incredibly, they submitted more point-earning photos than games attended, snapping 32 photos over the course of 31 games.

The highlight of the contest for the Cooks this year was the 19-point photo they took at the Nationals Park BallhawkFest in July. With Ryan Braun hitting, Tim Cook held up a sign with the words "Braun Was Framed."

Coming in second place this year was Jacqui Reynolds (54 points), followed by Michel Audet (26 points), Nick Badders (24 points), and Larry Larson (19 points).

The 2014 contest featured 10 participants, a new high. The contest will return next season for the sixth year, with the Cook Family again being the heavy favorites.
