

Member:

File Viewer

- Home
- Scoreboard
- Schedule
- Leaders
- Search Data
- View Stats
- Members
- News
- Interactive
- Site Info

Cooks Defend Scavenger Hunt Title

Last Year's Winners Rack Up 88 Points, Successfully Repeat

By Alan Schuster
Oct 31, 2011

Todd Cook, along with sons Tim and Kellan, once again dominated the field to win the second annual myGameBalls.com Photo Scavenger Hunt, defending their title with an 88-point performance out of a possible 130 points. The Cooks, winners of a $50 MLB gift card, racked up points throughout the year and left only a few contest items unphotographed.

Todd Cook
Tim and Kellan pose for a bonus photo at Citi Field.

"The 2011 Scavenger Hunt was a lot harder than the 2010 hunt, which resulted in a few pictures left at the end of the season," Todd remarked. "But it was, once again, loads of fun. We particularly enjoyed the pictures that involved player interaction (likeself photo and tossing a ball to a player) and the bonus picture option was awesome. Even after the competition, we'll continue collecting those until we have one at every stadium."

Cook and sons' 88 points were more than double the final score of the second place finisher, Mateo Fischer who scored 42 points. Behind Fischer were Zac Weiss (28), Howie (17), and Kyle Briggs (12).

Check out the Scavenger Hunt page to see the full standings along with all photos that were submitted

Baseball Glove Repair

Get your glove professionally re-laced or repaired and SAVE MONEY
www.AmericanGloveRepair.com

AdChoices |>

Post a Comment

There are no comments yet

All fields are mandatory!

Select your rating:

1000 characters left

Powered by Citricle

!
SEASON TIX 415.972.2298
BUY TIX NOW
SFGiants.com